FRIENDS OF THE RICHMOND GREENWAY
2014 NORMS OF PARTICIPATION
(Approved April 22, 2014)

P RINCIPLES
A. Be respectful
B. Step-up – step-back
C. Practice active listening
D. Foster constructive dialogue
E. Show personal responsibility

P RACTICES
A. Be Respectful
Listen when someone talks and pay attention; check the tone of your voice; utilize constructive criticism; no side conversations—be present in the group discussion; uplift and respect everyone’s work and progress on the Greenway; respect the project areas of other organizations; do not make disparaging comments about fellow FORG members or their projects and correct staff members who make such comments; and get explicit written permission/consent from other organizations to use that organization’s projects, either in words or pictures, in funding proposals, or any other promotional media materials.

B. Step Up – Step Back
Speak when you have something to say but don’t feel you have to speak on every point; ensure that everyone has an opportunity to be heard; be aware of inclusiveness; and do not dominate.

C. Practice Active Listening
Listen attentively to what others have to say without interrupting; re-state what you heard to make sure you heard it right; try to see things from another’s point of view—even if you disagree with what is being said; ask for clarification if something is unclear.

D. Foster Constructive Dialogue
Think about the big picture; be straightforward, honest and put issues on the table; stay on topic; leave room for disagreement; be transparent and willing to share information; try to stay on task before proposing to tackle a whole new issue; stay focused on the ultimate outcome.

E. Take Personal Responsibility

Be on time to all sessions; turn the sound off on cell phones; take responsibility for actions and words; follow through on all tasks you take on or pass them off to another responsible party as soon as you know you cannot complete the task; and try to resolve issues within FORG rather than taking such issues to outsiders.

FRIENDS OF THE RICHMOND GREENWAY
2014 CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY
(Approved April 22, 2014)

It is in the best interest of Friends of Richmond Greenway to be aware of and properly manage all conflicts of interest and appearances of a conflict of interest. This conflict of interest policy is designed to help Steering Committee members, officers, employees and volunteers of the Friends of Richmond Greenway identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest and to provide Friends of Richmond Greenway with a procedure to appropriately manage conflicts in accordance with the goals of accountability and transparency in Friends of Richmond Greenway operations. This Conflict of Interest Statement does not give FORG any authority to sanction, regulate or overturn the independent actions of organizations represented on the Steering Committee.

1. Conflict of Interest Defined. In this policy, a person with a conflict of interest is referred to as an “interested person.” For purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create a Conflict of Interest:

   a. A Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer (or family member of any of the foregoing) is a party to a contract, or involved in a transaction with Friends of Richmond Greenway for goods or services.

   b. A Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer (or a family member of any of the foregoing) has a material financial interest in a transaction between Friends of Richmond Greenway and an entity in which the Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer (or a family member of the foregoing) is a director, officer, agent, partner, associate, employee, trustee, personal representative, receiver, guardian, custodian, or other legal representative.

   c. A Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer (or a family member of the foregoing) is engaged in some capacity or has a material financial interest in a business or enterprise that competes with Friends of Richmond Greenway.

Other situations may create the appearance of a conflict, or present a duality of interests in connection with a person who has influence over the activities or finances of FORG. All such circumstances should be disclosed to the Steering Committee or staff, as appropriate, and a decision made as to what course of action FORG or the individuals should take so that the best interests of FORG are not compromised by the personal interests of stakeholders in FORG.

Gifts, Gratuities and Entertainment. Accepting gifts, entertainment or other favors from individuals or entities can also result in a conflict or duality of interest when the party providing the gift/entertainment/favor does so under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the interested person in the performance of his or her duties. This does not preclude the acceptance of items of nominal or insignificant value or entertainment of nominal or insignificant value which are not related to any particular transaction or activity of Friends of Richmond Greenway. If a Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer (or a family member of the foregoing) receives a significant gift from a party who has a material financial interest in FORG or is seeking to engage in a major financial transaction with FORG, then that person must declare a potential conflict of interest in accordance with the procedures outlined below.

2. Definitions.

   a. A "Conflict of Interest" is any circumstance described in Part 1 of this Policy.

   b. An "Interested Person" is any person serving as an officer, employee or member of the Steering Committee of Friends of Richmond Greenway or a major donor to Friends of Richmond Greenway or anyone else who is in a position of control over Friends of Richmond Greenway who has a personal interest that is in conflict with the interests of Friends of Richmond Greenway.

   c. A "Family Member" is a spouse, parent, child or spouse of a child, brother, sister, or spouse of a brother or sister, of an interested person.

   d. A "Material Financial Interest" in an entity is a financial interest of any kind, which, in view of all the circumstances, is substantial enough that it would, or reasonably could, affect an Interested Person’s or Family Member's judgment with respect to transactions to which the entity is a party.

   e. A "Contract or Transaction" is any agreement or relationship involving the sale or purchase of goods or services, the providing or receipt of a loan or grant, the establishment of any other type of financial relationship, or the exercise of control over another organization by way of a contractual agreement. The making of a gift to Friends of Richmond Greenway is not a Contract or Transaction.

3. Procedures.

   a. Prior to Steering Committee action on a Contract or Transaction involving a Conflict of Interest, a Steering Committee member having a Conflict of Interest and who is in attendance at the meeting shall disclose all facts material to the Conflict of Interest. Such disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. If Steering Committee members are aware that staff or other volunteers have a conflict of interest, relevant facts should be disclosed by the Steering Committee member or by the interested person him/herself if invited to the Steering Committee meeting as a guest for purposes of disclosure.

b. A Steering Committee member who plans not to attend a meeting at which he or she has reason to believe that the Steering Committee will act on a matter in which the person has a Conflict of Interest shall disclose to the chair of the meeting all facts material to the Conflict of Interest. The chair shall report the disclosure at the meeting and the disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

c. A person who has a Conflict of Interest shall not participate in or be permitted to hear the Steering Committee's discussion of the matter except to disclose material facts and to respond to questions. Such person shall not attempt to exert his or her personal influence with respect to the matter, either at or outside the meeting.

d. A person who has a Conflict of Interest with respect to a Contract or Transaction that will be voted on at a meeting shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum for purposes of the vote on the Contract or Transaction. However, said person will retain full voting rights on any other matters unrelated to the Contract or Transaction under reviews.

e. The person having a conflict of interest may not vote on the Contract or Transaction and shall not be present in the meeting room when the vote is taken, unless the vote is by secret ballot. Such person's ineligibility to vote shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. For purposes of this paragraph, a member of the Steering Committee of Friends of Richmond Greenway has a Conflict of Interest when he or she stands for election as an officer or for re-election as a member of the Steering Committee.

In the event it is not entirely clear that a Conflict of Interest exists, the individual with the potential conflict shall disclose the circumstances to his or her supervisor or the Chair or the Chair's designee, who shall determine whether full Steering Committee discussion is warranted or whether there exists a Conflict of Interest that is subject to this policy.

4. Confidentiality. Each Steering Committee member, officer, employee and volunteer shall exercise care not to disclose confidential information acquired in connection with disclosures of conflicts of interest or potential conflicts, which might be adverse to the interests of Friends of Richmond Greenway. Furthermore, Steering Committee members, officers, employees and volunteers shall not disclose or use information relating to the business of Friends of Richmond Greenway for their personal profit or advantage or the personal profit or advantage of their Family Member(s).

5. Review of policy.
a. Each Steering Committee member, officer, employee and volunteer shall be provided with and asked to review a copy of this Policy and to acknowledge in writing that he or she has done so.

b. Annually each Steering Committee member, officer, employee and volunteer shall complete a disclosure form identifying any relationships, positions or circumstances in which s/he is involved that he or she believes could contribute to a Conflict of Interest. Such relationships, positions or circumstances might include service as a director of or consultant to another nonprofit organization, or ownership of a business that might provide goods or services to Friends of Richmond Greenway. Any such information regarding the business interests of a Steering Committee member, officer, employee or volunteer, or a Family Member thereof, shall be treated as confidential and shall generally be made available only to the Chair, the Executive Director, and any committee appointed to address Conflicts of Interest, except to the extent additional disclosure is necessary in connection with the implementation of this Policy.

c. This policy shall be reviewed annually by each member of the Steering Committee. Any changes to the policy shall be communicated to all staff and volunteers

Title: Conflict Resolution

Definition
Conflict resolution is the process of facilitating a peaceful ending to a major dispute between two or more people (or groups). Conflict arises from the natural differences that exist among people. It occurs when people disagree over such things as values, goals, strategies, roles, resources and other important things.

A conflict resolution process is needed when (1) differences cannot be resolved by those who are having the conflict and (2) a critical mass of the Steering Committee members thinks that the conflict is having a negative impact on the group. Whenever a conflict resolution process is put into action, it is important that the process be deemed fair, trustworthy, timely and binding by all interested parties. This standard can only be met if...

- A conflict resolution process has been formally adopted by a super-majority (at least two-thirds) of the Steering Committee and remains a “living” document;
- A neutral person/team, acceptable to all of the parties in conflict, is selected to execute the conflict resolution process and does so in accordance with the adopted policy;
- All parties to the conflict believe that they will get a fair hearing and that their views will be considered without bias (even though they might not agree with the outcome); and
Organizational members set clear expectations, are unyielding in the effort to resolve the conflict and unwilling to be intimidated or distracted during the process.

Steps in the Conflict Resolution Process

Pre-Conflict Resolution
- Review, refine and reaffirm core values
- Develop a written conflict resolution policy/process
- Approve the conflict resolution policy/process by a super-majority (at least two-thirds) of the Steering Committee

Conflict Resolution Procedure
- The Executive Committee of the Steering Committee is responsible for declaring and taking appropriate action to resolve an inter-personal or inter-organizational conflict. If an Executive Committee member is a party to the conflict, then that person shall not participate in or be permitted to hear the Executive Committee’s discussion of the matter.
- The Executive Committee will request that the conflicting parties try to work things out directly without formal intervention by FORG.
- If the parties cannot resolve the conflict on their own, the Executive Committee will form an ad hoc Conflict Resolution Team that is empowered to talk with the interested parties, collect additional information and make a recommendation to the Executive Committee which has full authority to decide the matter.
- If a Conflict Resolution Team is selected, then the conflict resolution process should be completed and a decision rendered within a 4-6 week period.

Post-Conflict Resolution
- Review and assess the conflict resolution process
- Identify key learnings (i.e., what would you do differently if you could replay the tape)

2014 ACCOUNTABILITY STATEMENT
(Approved April 22, 2014)

   Title: The Many Faces of Nonprofit Accountability by Alnoor Ebrahim, 2010
   Title: Ethics and Accountability in the Nonprofit Sector
   Title: Accountability
   Title: Ensuring Accountability and Measuring Performance

Definition
Accountability means different things to different people at different times in different places. However, for most people, “accountability” means following the rules, doing what was promised, being transparent and taking responsibility for one’s actions. There are four main areas where people call for accountability: (1) raising and managing money (financial accountability); (2) operating an organization (leadership accountability); (3) serving the community (program or performance accountability); and (4) acting responsibly and with mutual respect (behavioral accountability). In our view, “accountability” is not a punitive idea. Rather, it’s a basic standard and expectation for people “to do the right thing” in serving the community.

Accountability Principles

Financial Accountability
Fiscal Management
- There should be a written fiscal sponsorship agreement approved by the FORG Steering Committee that states the terms and conditions of the financial relationship between FORG and the fiscal sponsor.
- As part of the fiscal management process, there should be...
  - A complete and accurate accounting of all monies received and disbursed on behalf of FORG.
  - Regular financial reports with up-to-date information on revenues, expenditures and unusual financial activity made publically available and readily accessible for Steering Committee members.
  - An annual audit or financial review by a Certified Public Accountant or other qualified, disinterested party.
Bonding insurance for individuals/organizations with fiscal responsibility.

Resource Development
- There should be written guidelines for member organizations to follow when doing individual or joint fundraising on behalf of FORG including the development and submittal of proposals/grant applications.
- There should be public disclosure of all grants, contracts, RFP’s/RFQ’s, and other financial arrangements (both potential financial opportunities and confirmed financial agreements).

Organizational Accountability
- There should be a written structure document approved by the FORG Steering Committee that addresses the following topics:

  Governing Body
  - Name, number and composition; roles and responsibilities; officers; committees; meetings; and decision-making.

  Friends and Affiliates
  - Types of support groups (e.g., individual, organization or agency) and the benefits of participation.

  Community
  - Community representation, engagement and accountability.

Program/Performance Accountability
- There should be a written Identity Statement (vision, mission, values, niche and strategic role) approved by the FORG Steering Committee.
- There should be written program guidelines approved by the FORG Steering Committee that address the following issues:
  - Rights and responsibilities of individual organizations working at their designated sites on the Greenway.
  - Process for approving projects that involve multiple sites on the Greenway.
- There should be an annual goal-setting and year-end review process for FORG with community input/feedback.

Behavioral Accountability
There should be a written “Norms of Participation” statement approved by the FORG Steering Committee. The statement should delineate the basic principles and practices that Steering Committee Members are expected to agree to and follow.

Steps in the Accountability Process
Steering Committee members (on behalf of their organizations or constituencies) are expected to do the following things to promote FORG accountability:

- Review, approve (or accept) and sign (as required), the following documents after approved by the Steering Committee: Accountability Statement, Conflict of Interest Policy, Conflict Resolution Statement, Identity Statement, Memorandum of Understanding, Norms of Participation and Structure Document.

- Work individually and collectively to implement the principles and practices outlined in this Accountability Statement.
Definition
The purpose of this document is to define the structure and operating procedures for Friends of the Richmond Greenway (FORG). It covers the following topics:

Governing Body
- Name, number and composition; roles and responsibilities; officers; committees; meetings; and decision-making

Friends and Affiliates
- Friend/Affiliate categories, selection process and benefits of participation.

Community
- Community representation, engagement and accountability

Governing Body
➢ Name
The governing body of FORG shall be called “Steering Committee”.

➢ Number and Composition
The Steering Committee will be composed of (1) representative of all organizations designated to serve on the initial Steering Committee and (2) at-large community members equal to a third of this number chosen to diversify the Steering Committee with regard to geography, ethnicity, organizational affiliation or other factors determined by FORG.

➢ Roles/Responsibilities of Steering Committee members
- Attend meetings
- Join and actively participate on a committee
- Sign FORG documents: Accountability Statement, Conflict of Interest Policy, Conflict Resolution Statement, Identity Statement and MOU
- Volunteer on the Greenway
- Be a FORG ambassador

➢ Officers
The four officers are two Co-conveners, a Secretary and a Treasurer. Their roles and responsibilities are:

- Co-Conveners: Convene and preside at all Steering Committee meetings, guide the planning and execution of program and administrative operations; co-chair the Executive Committee and serve as spokespersons of FORG.

- Secretary: Serve on the Executive Committee, coordinate communication with the Steering Committee, notify members of Steering Committee or Executive Committee meetings, take and distribute minutes of these meetings, and maintain all official records and documents of FORG.

- Treasurer: Serve on the Executive Committee, serve as liaison to the Fiscal Sponsor, provide leadership in developing the annual budget, monitor FORG expenditures and make periodic financial reports to the Steering Committee.

➢ Committees
The standing committees are: (1) Executive (officers); (2) Program; (3) Development; and (4) Communications and Outreach. FORG will create ad hoc committees to handle organizational matters when necessary. There shall be a one-year, renewable term of office for all committee members. Committees will set their own meeting schedules and operating procedures. However, all committees will (1) maintain an open and participatory process for community engagement, (2) establish a process to work with other committees and (3) post their meeting and activity schedule for general access by FORG members. Below is a description of the main roles of FORG committees:

1. Executive Committee
The FORG Executive Committee will:
- Provide leadership in guiding/supporting FORG to achieve its goals

- Work together as a team
- Deal with time-sensitive, organizational matters between regular Steering Committee meetings. In the event that the Executive Committee must make a time-sensitive decision, the Committee will contact the full voting membership to seek consensus. The membership has 72 hours to respond, presumably via telephone or email. If a majority of the Steering Committee responds to a call for action by the Executive Committee, then this would be a sufficient number to have a quorum for the transaction of business. When there is a quorum, then a majority of the voting members will determine the action to be taken by the Executive Committee. If there is no quorum, then there can be no action.

2. Program Committee
The FORG Program Committee will:
- Coordinate the design, development and delivery of the priority program areas
